PRESS RELEASE

ELEGANT ITALIAN-DINING IN MAYFAIR TAKES ON A NEW DIRECTION

Avista appoints new manager, Andres Cabrera

London, October 10, 2011 - The Millennium Hotel London Mayfair has announced the appointment of Andres Cabrera as the manager of Avista Restaurant & Bar, the premier Italian establishment adjacent to the hotel.

Avista will take on a fresh new direction under the new management of Andres Cabrera who has rich experience working in restaurants of Marco Pierre White, Gordon Ramsey and Alain Ducasse.

While Avista will continue to showcase the inspiring and sophisticated cuisine of chef Michele Granziera, Andres personalised touches to service and customer care will ensure that Avista capture the essence and expectations of today's diner who demand nutritious, high-quality food served in a comfortable and leisurely that is complemented by unobtrusive service and reasonable prices.

Said Mr. Louis Sailer, General Manager of Millennium Hotel London Mayfair, "We are very excited at the prospect of bringing a new level of dining experience to our guest by combining Chef Michele Granziera's culinary excellence and Andres solid approach to customer service, supported by an experienced team and an exquisite Mayfair setting. We are committed to raising the bar for this next chapter of the restaurant and providing guests with an array of brand new dining experiences."

Opening times:

Monday-Friday

Lunch 12.00-14.30 / Dinner 18.00-22.30

Saturday 18.00-24.00

Sunday closed
